The meeting started at 10:30 Hrs. in which a total of 51 members were present to pay homage.

Our Managing Trustee Sri P. Santhakumar, Secretary Sri K. Balasubramanian, Senior members Sri V. Vijayamohan and Sri R.R. Ramasubramanian combinedly presided over the service.

All the members were invited by the Managing Trustee to show their respect by offering flowers to the Photographs of Late G. Vasudevan and Late S.G. Jayaprakash. The members remembered the association and paid rich tributes to the departed souls.

Sri P. Santhakumar Managing Trustee mentioned that both are known to him as family friends right from 1974. He recalled the exemplary services of JP as Managing Trustee of our trust earlier. He further recollected a devotional tour along with JP to Amarnath, Puttappathi etc., mentioning that JP participated in more than 1000 bhajans in hundreds of locations. Shri Santhakumar recollected that Vasudevan was a notable figure in the DoT HQs, especially in SEA section at New Delhi. He fondly remembered that Vasu's in-law relationship is at Cuddalore. He concluded by saying that both JP and Vasu would ever be in our memory.

Sri K. Balasubramanian Secretary mentioned that both served for AFSOA as well as our Trust, and would live in the heart of all even after their demise. Late JP and Vasu has served to the needy for their hunger and education, without any self-expectation, as advocated by Swami Vivekananda, he said. Our AFSOA house was purchased in the year 1993 and for a long time JP and Vasu were in charge for the building. Annually there were around 270 bookings per year (75% occupancy ratio) in those days. He recalled with reverence that both used to be extremely polite in dealing with enquiries for booking and providing accommodation to the guests, and were always praised by those who stayed there. He remembered that Vasu was elected as Circle Secretary of AFSOA conference held at Salem on April 12 & 13 1997 at TRS Kalyana mandapam. He recalled that both participated and effectively produced results in enrolment drives for the Trust. He also fondly remembered that contribution in arriving capital gain tax after sale of AFSOA House. Vasu was always specific to spend low and used public transport, he mentioned. He recalled that JP was treasurer for AFSOA, founder trustee, a pioneer in Sai Trust activities. Got opportunity in participating twice in the Sai Trust Activities. JP was instrumental in outstanding membership enrolment drive, he said. He recalled event management capabilities of JP and also the role played in disposal of the AFSOA House. He recalled the role played by JP in conducting Trust's meeting to honour students held in Hotel Kanchi. He concluded by saying that both Vasu and JP, though physically not present would ever remain in our hearts.

Sri V. Vijayamohan Senior member in his address told that both are very close friends. Vasu for more than 25 years. He used to call frequently and speaks for 30 minutes. It was a shocking news for me about his demise. JP very active in Satya Sai movement. Both left unfortunately rather early, he said. He appealed to all to strictly follow Covid Precautions.

Sri R.R. Ramasubramanian Senior founder member said JP's noble activities made him remember the proverb of "Left hand don't know the charity activities done by right hand". Vasu helped a lot at DoT & Trust. He used to take quick decision. Both are pillars of AFSOA as well as Trust.

Sri Rajaaram in his remembrance recalled the 45 years friendship with Vasu. Vasu is expert in maintaining and balancing relationship. Very practical. Good mentor to develop people. Vasu is liked by all even though he was working at SEA. Had friendship with JP for more than 30 years. He used to advise a lot on divinity. He departed on Satya Sai Jayanthi day, he said.

Sri T.R.S Sriram: Both are very important to AFSSOA and Trust. Though Vasu is senior used to call as Vasu only. When transferred to his zone Sriram gone to Mantralayam and given prasadam to Vasu's retirement as desired by him. Pray for his soul to attain Mukthi. JP remembers me as TRS only instead of Sriram. I worked closely during audit with him. JP helped in getting blood during emergency. Managing Trustee Sri Shanthakumar has supplemented that JP has arranged for more than 60 people blood needs.

Sri T Sundar in his address remembered that Vasu received him at Delhi and Sunder received JP at Delhi. JP has arranged for darshan at Kodaikanal and Puttaparthi where JP own a house.

Sri T.S. Krishnamurthy: Vasu and JP are known for 40 years. Vasu as a clerk & JAO in SEA worked together for 4 years. With ADG SEA Ganapathy Vasu boldly tells his views. JP worked at TCIL and always helps others.

Sri Sethu remembered JP during the days when children studied in KV, worked in GSM and trust activities. In respect of Vasu he recollected the days at AO Cash HQs, CAO(F). During hospitalisation Sethu visited in person. Remembered that Vasu do not want to waste public money.

Sri Koteeswaran remembered his clerical period when Vasu was AO. Only Vasu informed his JAO qualification results. While sharing the thoughts about JP he recalled him as his elder brother. When Koteeswaran was two years old, he was very sick and graced by Baba. His activities remembered in Seva dal. Only JP enrolled Koteeswaran in the Trust. He recollected the joint activities at Chrompet samithi and Central Samithi.

Sri Dakshinamurthy remembered the closeness had with Vasu. He used to consult in each and everything. Vasu neglected his health. One should be away from what is to be kept away. Visited Vasu when he was in hospital. JP helped a lot of needy people in his devotional path. JP would have taken appropriate medicines. Prayed for Vasu & JP could rest in peace.

Sri P. Venugopal stated that he wanted to attend both their funeral. As he was away at Salem could not attend in person. He remembered the blood donation service of JP. Also recalled JP service at Bombay, Delhi, Pune and Chennai. JP is the member of many social activities. Vasu while worked at SEA section at HQs discussed about lot of transfer issues and he help.

Sri Duraiarasan recollected the 1998 circle conference. Vasu's help in deriving and paying in three bank branches of the capital gain tax is remembered. JP is known for his accountability in public accounts. JP's advise on hygiene at home practice is still followed. Both lived like a tamil song "Even during our life time / mortal – our name should remain forever"

Sri Swaminathan remembered JP from his appointment at Cuddalore. JP is family friend. Similarly, Vasu is the well wisher. Vasu helped in his tough times of official career.

Sri Adinarayanan stated that Vasu was instrumental for introduction of mass mailing scheme. Vasu was in adjacent section and Adi followed many activities undertaken by Vasu in his section. Vasu enquired about Adi's attire. On invite, vasu visited Adi's house and absorbed the practice. While remembering about JP, Adi quoted examples from Ramayan and compared the praising of others by JP. JP's beautiful handwriting is remembered. JP's Life at Pune experience is shared. Sai Bhajan during his illness is known to all. JP himself has earned his "Aathma Shanti"

JP's brother thanked one and all for remembering him and shared the sorrow of missing JP by all. JP helped the all the needy. He was a very sweet heart person. JP's mother is not yet recovered from his loss.

The remembrance meeting ended with two minutes silence for the departed souls.
